

Senior Parents Weekend

FACULTY LECTURE SERIES

1-1:50PM

"FALSE PREMISES IN HEALTH CARE POLICY"

Dr. Robin Goldenberg, St. Mary's 107

A discussion of the kitchen sink of reform issues that will make healthcare even less affordable than it is currently.

"MULTITASKING AND MULTITEAMING: HOW MANY TASKS AND TEAMS CAN WE JUGGLE?"

Dr. Michael O'Leary, ICC 107

A discussion of how technology is enabling us to divide our attention and live/work in increasingly fragmented ways-- how much do we multitask and multiteam, who is actually good at it, and is there anything we can do to get better at it?

2-2:50PM

"U.S. FOREIGN POLICY IN THE TRUMP ADMINISTRATION"

Dr. Anthony Arend, ICC 107

In the wake of a new American administration, this talk will focus on the implications of a new president and national security team for the future of U.S. foreign policy.

"THE NEUROSCIENCE OF YOUR KID'S BRAIN IN COLLEGE"

Dr. Maria Donoghue, ICC 103

A discussion of nervous system structure and function, addressing what is happening to the brain during college- in life, in class, and in social settings.

3-3:50PM

"FLOURISHING IN LIFE AFTER COLLEGE"

Dr. Sarah Stiles, ICC 107

A discussion exploring what we can do to thrive in an environment of stress and busy-ness on the Hilltop and in the professional world.
